“As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, ‘Son of man, I am sending you...’”
 Ezekiel 2:2-3

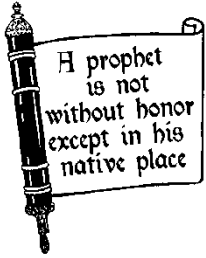

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But He doesn’t leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God’s call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn’t call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.

Our Love and Prayers go out to...

We want to hold one another in prayer, especially Robert Svir, Ginny Olson, Marsha Cerar and for all those who struggle with illness and those who have asked for our prayers. “May you touch them and heal them, O Lord!”

Victim Assistance

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at (218) 281-7895 (24-hour confidential number)

Today's Reading: The journey of faith begins at home. Our children watch us with innocent eyes, to see if the faith we proclaim is portrayed in our deeds. Carefully these little hearts observe to see if we truly believe in this Almighty God they've preached so loudly.

And what will we show them? Do we trust Him to provide for our needs? Do we invite Him to participate in our family life? Do we spend time with Him daily? What evidence of our faith can our children see on the six days a week we're not in church? Before another day goes by ask yourself this vital question: Jesus found He was not honored in His own home - is He honored in yours?

Hello! I am your envelope reminder angel. While you are enjoying the summer sun activity, don't forget your church at home. Your help will still be needed to meet current expenses.

Pray with Pope Francis

The Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention each month. July's intention is For the pastoral care of the sick. Let us pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick grant the Lord's strength to those who receive it and to their loved ones, and that it may become for everyone an ever more visible sign of compassion and hope.
